

Cut Through Red Tape

Let us know which rules or regulations are holding you back.

What is the Red Tape Hotline?

A fast, confidential way to share your small business concerns about excessive regulation or paperwork.

For nearly 50 years, the Office of Advocacy has worked behind the scenes to cut red tape for small businesses.

Facing regulatory roadblocks?

Talk to someone on the inside who gets it.

Your voice matters.

You power the economy—we help amplify your concerns. Use the Red Tape Hotline to speak up and spark change. Your input goes directly to our Advocacy team, which works with federal agencies to improve small business regulations.

Let's clear the way for your business—and for American prosperity.
